MERCHANTS OF STATE TO MEET HERE NEXT YEAR

State Association Chooses 1921 Convention City, Endorses Obregon And Urges Cabinet Change

Completing its business by choosing Phoenix as the city in which the 1921 convention of the organization will be held and by electing officers for the coming year, the convention of the Arizona Merchants' association came to an end yesterday in Nogales after a two-day session. The convention dates in Phoenix next year will be the Friday and Saturday preceding the opening of the state fair.

Among the labors of the convention was the adoption of a series of resolutions which have been designed to be of benefit to every merchant in the state, and which include a number of topics. The first takes cognizance of what has been done by the association in the past, and impresses upon its members the necessity of increasing its membership and to report to the next convention in the state shall be carried on its rolls, and that a 100 per cent membership should be aimed at during the coming year.

The second has to do with reclamation and conservation and endorses in particular the San Carlos, Charleston and Colorado river projects. The third, which is among the important works of the association, declares that the present portfolio of secretary of commerce and labor covers too great a field, to the consequent detriment of commercial interests, and urges that a separate department to take care of commercial interests should be created by act of congress. Copies of this resolution have been transmitted to Senators Marcus A. Smith and Henry F. Ashurst and Congressman Carl Hayden.

The fourth resolution instructs the chairman to appoint a committee of three members to act as a legislative committee and to report to the executive committee on any measures introduced in either branch of the state legislature which may affect the merchants of the state.

Merchants Endorse Obregon
The fifth resolution expresses confidence in General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, who invited the delegates to the convention to his home in Nogales, Sonora, and who extended to them his desire for friendly business and social relations with the men of this country to enter Mexico to engage in international and local commerce. The resolution ends with the extending of the fullest support and co-operation to General Obregon by the association, to the end that the Mexican republic shall profit by his administration as its chief executive.

The sixth resolution extends the appreciation of the association to James Harris, mayor of Nogales; the Nogales chamber of commerce, the Nogales Merchants' association, Berlin Boyd, secretary of the Denver Retail Merchants' association, and the people of Nogales for the courtesies extended by them to the Arizona Merchants' association.

The seventh resolution urges the secretary of state to modify the existing passport regulations by annulling the existing visa fee law as it affects Mexico and to simplify border control. Copies of this resolution were sent to Secretary of State Colby, the chamber of commerce of Nogales, Sonora, and the chambers of commerce of all the border cities.

The convention yesterday listened to two speeches, both of which were delivered by Phoenixians. The first was an address on "Fair Prices and Profit-earning," and as made by George H. Smay, of the Smay Co., of Phoenix. The second was by C. Hyatt, Phoenix advertising man, on "Fakes and Mistakes in Advertising."

The officers of the association for the coming year are George F. Klitta, Tucson, president; Ben Rice, Phoenix, vice president; H. A. Morgan, Wilcox, treasurer, and Charles Christy, secretary. These officers, with J. J. Miller, Ray, and T. J. Leeson, McNeal, also will act as a board of directors.

The board of governors will consist of E. Riley, Ajo; B. Maler, Benson; Ben Frankenberg, Bisbee; E. M. Williams, Clifton; J. H. Wilkins, Casa Grande; J. Levy, Douglas; Frank Keat, Flagstaff; E. S. Martin, Indian Wells; E. W. Childs, Mammoth; T. J. Leeson, McNeal; O. S. Stapley, Mesa; L. J. Owen, Morenci; L. H. Westerling, Prescott; George F. Klitta, Tucson; Dave Loeb, Nogales; J. J. Miller Ray, Julius Becker, Springville; E. J. Keller, Jr., Superior; E. J. Whiting, St. Johns; R. A. Armstrong, Safford; J. C. Browne, Tolleson; John P. Kerley, Tuba City; A. A. Volk, Wickenburg; H. A. Morgan, Wilcox; F. M. Poole, Winkelman; T. J. Daze, Winslow; Edwin Johnson, Williams; H. C. Brown, Yuma; Ben Rice, Phoenix, and W. Y. Price, Florence.

About 40 Phoenix merchants attended the convention.

"DOGS, BUT NO BABIES—GET OUT!"

PORTLAND, Ore.—The first words of congratulation on the arrival of a story with a baby boy that Tom Riley, lately captain of the A. E. F., heard here, came from his landlady, Mrs. Anna Holton. "Out!" said she; "out quick! I let 'em keep dogs in my apartments, but no babies."
